

- The French and Italian National Contact Points to the OECD Guidelines published reports with recommendations to the sector on how to apply the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises.
- The ILO-IFC Better Work Program launched a program in Bangladesh in 2014 to promote comprehensive and harmonised assessments on labour standards.
- The International Labour Organisation (ILO) launched the Improving Working Conditions in the Ready-Made Garment Sector in Bangladesh \(RMGP\) programme.
- In Germany, the Partnership for Sustainable Textiles 'Textil bundnis' launched in 2014 to address common challenges across the sector.
- In the Netherlands, in 2016, a broad coalition of industry organisations, trade unions, civil-society organisations and the Dutch government finalised an agreement on international responsible business conduct in the garment and textile sector.
- The French, Belgian, Italian, Dutch and Canadian National Contact Points have been active in promoting due diligence to tackle key issues in the textile and garment sectors.